

Sermon Notes
"Your King Is Coming"

Isolation and loneliness aren't just results of the "stay at home" policy in place during the COVID-19 outbreak. Isolation and loneliness are part of the human condition. When humans turn away from God, they are unable to face each other. The good news on this Palm Sunday, God will not leave us alone.

I. The disciples face ultimate isolation

A. John 13:33

II. Jesus explains his leaving

A. John 14:2 – Jesus tells where he is going

B. John 14:4:6 – Jesus tells why he is going

III. Jesus promises to come back after resurrection

A. John 14:18 – he will not leave them as orphans

B. John 20:19-20 – Jesus keeps his promise

IV. Jesus promises to come at the close of history

A. John 14:2b-3 – Jesus takes us to the abiding place

B. 1 John 3:2 – Jesus followers look forward to his coming

V. Jesus and the Father promise to come and dwell

A. John 14:23, 26 – The promise of the Holy Spirit to continue the mission of the Father and the Son

VI. Resistance

A. John 14:19 – The world turns from the coming of God

B. Revelation 3:20 – Jesus still comes

VII. How to receive him when he comes

A. John 14:21 – Obedience out of love

B. John 14:1 – Trust without fear